OPEN EVENINGS

Declares High Wage Slap Doesn't Hit Postoffice

Governor Frank O. Lowden's general indictment of the government wastefulness in paying high wages to unnecessary employees had no application to the postal service, a telegram to the Illinois executive by Thomas F. Flaherty, secretary-treasurer of the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, fairly asserted. In his telegram Flaherty said the government's wage standards and general employment conditions in the postal service are for contract and capable employees, and that in Chicago alone in the past year over 5,000 clerks have left the service because of the low wages.

VETERANS ARGUE PROFEER TAX

Rep. Johnson Would Get Soldier Bonus from Men With War Fortunes.

Taxation of profiteers and men who made fortunes from the war to provide adjusted compensation for world war veterans was advocated by Representative Royal C. Johnson, of South Dakota, a veteran of the A. E. F., who spoke at the first anniversary of National Capital Post. V. F. W., at Central High School, yesterday.

"The veterans would be the most-cursed men in history," said he, "if the tax for this adjusted compensation should not be laid just where it belongs, and should bring an additional burden to the people. Increases in the cost of living would be laid on the world war veterans."

"On the other hand, no man ought to have made a dollar of profit from this war. The necessity of the government's support of the war, the adjusted compensation, which enabled them to amass considerable money."

"The aims and ideals of the war service men probably will not be clear for three generations. We are just realizing now what the aims and ideals of the men who fought the Revolutionary and the civil wars were."

Senator George H. Moses, of New Hampshire, and Representative Thomas S. Crago, Pennsylvania, past commander-in-chief of the V.
F. W., also spoke.
